David, we will need your approval to put this on the rehire list.

Also, a couple of concerns. Dale has told Sandy GAndy that he has been told by someone in Fire that he can come back without going on probation at the same salary he had when he left and that he only thing affected would be his seniority.

Actually, according to policy, rehires start all over with everything, including coming back to step 1.

Any exceptions to that would have to be cleared through Betsy. I am thinking that we probably have, at times in the past, been a bit generous with the salary part of it if it was appropriate to do so, but not with the rest of it.

Also, David, we probably need to discuss the necessity, since we consider a rehire a brand new hire, for the entire background process being completed first. We need to discuss this one at our HR staff meeting next week.

Your thoughts?

Chief Washington,

I resigned from the LVFR in August of last year in order to relocate to northern California with my family. The day I came in to your office to say goodbye, I told you that my leaving had nothing to do with the department, and was one of the hardest decisions I had ever made. At that time you told me that if things did not work out, that you would allow me to return to the department, and you made it clear that this offer was not made to every body that leaves. This offer was both humbling and reassuring at the same time.

To say the least, the relocation has not been what my wife and I had hoped for, on either a personal or professional basis. It is for this reason that I asking to take you up on your offer. I am requesting permission to be placed on the rehire list at Human Resources.

Chief, I have made mistakes before, but I'm hoping that you will allow me to undo this one. I want to come back to the department that I miss and should not have left. My wife and I want to return to the area we still consider home. We were unable to sell our house when we left, so we already have a home to move back to. My Nevada Paramedic Certification is still current, and I would be willing and able to return to the department at your convenience.

I would appreciate your consideration of this matter, Chief. Please contact me if you have any questions @ (702)306-4069 or email : abnfiremedic@yahoo.com. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Dale Carnes
